Location

Loudwater is an exclusive Estate and conservation area located near Rickmansworth in Hertfordshire. The area has been inhabited since at least the Saxon times, with archaeological evidence of settlements dating back to the 4th and 5th centuries. The name Loudwater derives from the loud noise of the River Chess, which flows through the area.

It offers excellent transport links with junctions 17 and 18 of the M25 a few minutes' drive with Heathrow, Luton and Gatwick airports within easy reach. For the commuter there are Metropolitan/Chiltern Line stations at both Rickmansworth and Chorleywood offering services into central London. Shopping facilities in Rickmansworth include Waitrose, M & S Foodhall, Tesco Superstore as well as smaller independent outlets for day-to-day needs.

There is also an excellent range of schooling in the private and public sector including the highly regarded Royal Masonic School.

For Clarification

We wish to inform prospective purchasers that we have not prepared these sales particulars as a general guide. We have not carried out a detailed survey, nor tested the services, appliances and specific fittings. Room sizes are approximate and rounded: they are taken between internal wall surfaces and therefore include cupboards/shelves, etc.

Accordingly, they should not be relied upon for carpets and furnishings. Formal notice is also given that all fixtures and fittings, carpeting, curtains/blinds and kitchen equipment, whether fitted or not, are deemed removable by the vendor unless specifically itemised within these particulars

Whilst every attempt has been made to ensure the accuracy of the floor plans contained here, measurements of doors, windows and rooms are approximate, and no responsibility is taken for any error, omission or misstatement. These plans are for representation purposes only as defined by the RICS Code of Measuring Practice and should be used as such by any prospective purchaser or tenant. The services, systems and appliances listed in this specification have not been tested by Binks (Sales & Lettings) Ltd and no guarantee as to their operating ability or their efficiency can be given.
